

With the advent of the atomic era. Americans are looking forward to a modern tomorrow, with new inventions, new developments and untold marvels in every field. Keeping in mind these thoughts and possibilities for the future we, the Lowellian staff of 1946, have chosen as the theme of our yearbook—Modern Design.

SENIOR PROPHECY

My Day--June 32, 1968

What a hectic day! I've run into so many people I can't see straight. I was awakened by the phone at 6 a.m. and was surprised to hear the voice of a very good friend and schoolmate, Sally Gullstrom, the noted dietician. Sally wanted to spend her day off with me and naturally I was delighted to have her.

I jumped out of my plastic bed and started to dress. I was very uprised to notice that on the label in my spun steel dress was "Designed by Helen Runyon, Exclusive." I never dreamed Helen could settle down enough to design a dress. No sooner had I gotten dressed than Sally arrived. We ate breakfast on my penthouse terrace and she told me of the classmates she had met on a rocket ship tour around the world.

In Russia, she looked up Arman Kasparian, the Tsar. He married Impelda Scheidt and they are living happily in Kaspergrad, thennew capitol of Russia. She said that Charles Hafch, the new Fred Astaire has a new dancing partner, who is also his wife—Reba Creekmur. It was by a supr diet that he lost enough weight to dance.

By the time my maid, Mary Taylor, had cleared away the dishes, I had told her about the wedding of Jack Lacy and Joanne Albertson. Jack is a Control of the Mary and Joanne is his secretary. They had a beautiful wedding in surgeon and Joanne is his secretary. They had a beautiful wedding in the secretary of the model of the secretary about meeting Jane Kimmet modeling children's clothes at the Macy Department Store. Buth Souder, who started her journalism career in high school, is now editor of the New York Times and Earl Grelck is a copy boy for the same paper.

Sally is now a red-head and I inquired, to find that she had met Phyllis Viers, a beautican, in Paris and she did it. Phyllis is also a red-head and Joan King, her partner in the beauty salon, grew to be the word of the peak of the partner in the second of the partner in the peak of t

After talking for hours, we decided to go shopping: On the way down, we discovered that the new elevator boy was none other than Dick Meyer. The last I heard of him he was a millionaire, but it seems his financial worries were many and he gave his money away and took this job. He informed us he was going to marry Darlene Cox, the telephone girl in the Duilding, and they were going to the roof for their honeymoon in the near future.

whom we reached the corner news stand, the newsboy, Bill Zehme, was shuting, "Extry! Extry! President McGrav impeached! Read all about it! McGrav impeached! He was talking about Midlard McGrav who was elected President in 1964. Cuitakly purchasing a paper we discovered that Borporceedings because Mille had roused and brought up the impeachment proceedings because Mille had roused. All brought up the impeachment state. The paper said the reason was that Millie's ex-husband, Bill Rust, lived there. She has been married five times. Her second husband Jack Vanco, died of poisoning. It is believed that Mildred caused this, but no one has been able to prove it because she was a chemist before but no one has been able to prove it because she was a chemist before third husband. Paul for thought that also discovered a new poison. Her third husband Paul for thought that she discovered an ew poison. Her third husband Paul for thought that she discovered and the discovered and the first because the state of the control of Overwhelmed by this news, we stopped in the nearest drugstore for a coke and noticed a sign which read "Antsbuechler's Pharmacy." The waitress said that Miss Antsbuechler owned a chain of drugstores since she had made her millions. Flossie married Roger Childress and he goes by the name of Mr. Florence Antsbuechler.

While drinkins our cokes we noticed an advertisement in a newspaper which seed "Tyley so of lies" the Light Most beautiful Girls in the World-Now Appearing at the Stort Me Light Most beautiful Girls in the eight beauties were: Gladys Anderson, Mary Conner, betty Huebach, Iackie Gross, Corrine Hufnagel, Joan and Solly Little, and Marge Miller. As an added attraction—the Callahan sisters would be doing a song and dance routine. The Tyler who is manager of these Follies is the one and only Ernest. Solly reminded me that Ernest and Jean Roseberry eloped in 1949.

Since Sally wanted to visit the zoo, we hurried to catch a rocket

Taxi that would get us to the Bronx Zoo in two seconds. After landing in the parking lot we wolked to the main building which hod a sign reoding, "Bronx Zoo—Yirgil Ewer, Director."

Ambling on we came to on empty cage and above the door was a sign reading. This cage will be used for a handon being puzzled we caked a quarty. This cage will be used to consider the constant of the control of the co

We journeyed to Rockefeller Center and as it was early, the scrub lody was still working. Wolking toward the elevator, we tripped over a map and discovered the worker to be none other than Geroldine Childress. She told us that Geroldine Childress in the furnace room soon ofter she storted working there.

After leaving the Center we possed o huge undertoking establishment. There was on enormous fyon (new type of neon) billboard which read, "Jock Schutz, The Cheerful Undertaker." Wolking from the establishment was Jack himself and with him wos o tall, dark, slender woman. She looked voguely familior but I couldn't place her. Jack noticing our bewilderment; told us she was his wife, the former Estaline Whitehouse. People do change!

Going on down the street we saw a curio shop. Going on down the street we saw a curio shop. We decided to stop and see if the shop contoined real curios or whether it was just junk. There really were some curios; things I hadn't seen for years—o model of o B-29, canned foods, on electric stove—just imagine, an old-fosh-ioned electric stove. Some of those first plostics. This stuff was really old. As we were reminiscing, a clerk came to woit on us. You've quessed it. If was another closs—mote, Loura Ann Smith. She told us are stored to the store of the We decided to stop

We inquired about other clossmates and whe told us thot Joe Abraham, the famous construction engineer, hodmarried Jeon Vinnedge and they have eight children. She is still os beautiful ostever ond now tours the world as the most beoutiful mother in the country.

We stopped at a bookstore for Sally wanted to get a copy of whariage is No Pianic" an onti-marriage book by Dorothy Hoyden. Dorothy had been married to Bill Peterson but now they are divorced. The owners of the shop proved to be Dole Turner and his wife, the former Bonnie Kenney. They have seventeen children; sextuplets, quadruplets, triplets, and two poirs of twins--quite o family.

As we were leaving the book store, Sally was knocked dawn by o man chasing ol little boy. The mon was Donald Borr, who had become a truant officer and of the time he was chosing a truant. He informed us that Hillsley became his wife in 1950 and that she spent her spare time weoving steel rugs.

Hopping into a heliomobile we headed for the East side. Here there were fish markets, fruit and wegetable wenders and everything was in a stote of confusion. Hearing o familiar voice, Solly and I wolked to one of the fish markets. Here, the proprietor, Ed McCarthy was shouting, "Buy your pickled herring here!" Ed's wife, the former Dean Dixon, was was also glod to see us. If was hord to believe this person was Dean for she now weighs 385 pounds.

Being quite thirsty, Solly ond I returned to town for a cocktail. We stopped in a small cocktail lounge where Betty Nomanson was tending the bor. Alice Poppe was the owner of the lounge and her husbond is Roy Osburn, who had a terrible time keeping his money. Alice manages the business while Roy keeps house.

Solly and I were practically exhausted now from so much "godding", so we bootded a heliambile and headed back to my oportment. On the bus were Bob Berg and his wife, the former Thelma warren. Bob is now the football cach at Notre Dame and he and Thelma were on their way the South Bend for spring troining.

As the great doy came to a close we were very tired but hoppy that we had seen so many friends, and fell into a deep peaceful slumber on our spun gloss pillows.

Four score minus seventy-six years ago, our poor-fathers brought forth into this institution-of learning-us-the class of '46. One hundred and fifteen freshmen timidly found their way from class to class to class. Later after we had become better acquainted welected our class officers.—Roger Childress, president; Margaret Stahl, vice-president; and Virgil Ewer, secretary-freasurer. Albertson, Viers, Ewer and Little were in Student Council to represent the freshies.

In the Lowellian contest Joanne Albertson and Art Shultz were voted best-looking freshman girl and boy. Barbara Schneider and Dick Meyer were most popular, and Sally Little and Arman Kasparian were the battling athletes. Our broiny characters were Norma Worley and Roger Childress.

To lead us through our second year we chose Roger Childress as chief guide with Virgil Ewer as his assistant and Bill peterson to keep the supplies in order. That was when we ordered our sweaters, and brown and gold were to be our class colors.

Albertson and Meyer were the ones we took lessons from on how to becutify ourselves this year. The "How To win Friends" department was handled by Viers and Childress. Little and Kasparian gave us our sitting-up exercises. The brains were dished out by Norris and Souder.

On that September morn in '44 freshmen and sephomores were to be seen scampering for safety—the juniors had invaded the school. Maybe as sephomores we had been quiet but we certainly had changed.

In a rather noisy session Sally Little was elected to lead us, with Dick Meyer as her chief attendant. Bill peterson was to keep the records straight, and Virgil Ewer had charge of the finances.

By this time Schutz, Kasparian, and Abraham had earned well deserved places on the football team. Norris and Kasparian were tipping in baskets to keep up the good name of our class.

That year in the Lowellian contest Little and Kasparian again proved to be the best athletes, Norris and Worley the most likely to succeed, Albertson and Meyer, the best looking, and Schneider and Childress the most popular.

In December of '44 we threw ourselves industriously into giving the junior play. We chose "Junior Miss" as the production and began working to smooth out the rough places. McCarthy, Callahan, Drew, Gulstrom, Taylor Runyon, Albertson, Abraham, Souder, Neyer, Havyden, Pavek, Schutz made the play a smash hit. For a time we all went around considering ourselves ready for the Broadway stage but soon the plans for the Prompushed everything aside.

We came back to school a different class. We had seen the end of the war-our country had just passed through a scene in history that will remain fixed in all our minds. Ever was to lead our class this year while Peterson was second in command and Norris was to take records and have charge of finances. When Paul went to Purdue after the first semester, Souder took his place.

Kasparian, Abraham, Hatch, Rust, Meyer, Schutz and Peterson proved themselves tough opposition on the football field. The seniors were mighty proud of their football team. Kasparian, Norris, and Rust were on the starting five in basketball and their size and speed was well appreciated by all except those who felt defeat at the hands of Lowell.

Jeannie Vinnedge and Bill Zehme were veted best-looking in the lowelfsan contest. Sally bittle and Arman Kasparian best athletes, paul Norris and Sally Gullstrom most likely to succeed, and Joanne Albertson and Roger Chuldress most popular.

"Seventeen" was chosen for the senior play. Miss Thompson chose the cast and we began work. Of course along with the hard work was fun, too. The cast who worked in order to present this was Ed McCarthy, Pat Callana, Roger Childress, Bill Peterson, Joane Albertson, Mary Paylor, Harch, Sally Gullstem, and poyce Doblitte. The was the first of the Harch, Sally Gullstem, and poyce Doblitte. The was the property of the processing the processing services and powns. This year, because we felt that since we were the first closs to graduate in this new peace, we should have something appropriate so we chose white caps and gowns to signify our hope of putity for the world.

HONOR SOCIETY

Honor points are earned by participation in clubs, organizations, and different activities in the school throughout the year. Three members from each class receive awards on honor day for having acquired thighest number.

The year's winners and the approximate number of honor points earned by each are as follows:

Seniors Ruth Souder Bill Rust Arman Kasparian	143 8 14	144 12 21 23	45 20 20 18	58 51 49	Total 98 97
Juniors Gladys Stasaitis Barbara Bailey Marcella Futhey		30 20 24	46 26 24	53 44 40	129 06 88
Sophomores Robert Coloney Lois Little Phyllis Sutton			17 22 13	30 24 23	47 46 36
Freshmen Marilyn Hayden Jeanette Randolph JoAnn Brownell			3	30	30 23 22

Those seniors acquiring the most points in their four years of school are Roger Childress 43), Sally Little 410, and Geraldine Childress 407. They will have their names engraved on the honor plaque in the lower half for the class of 1946.

SENIOR GRADE POINTS

In computing grade points, A counts four points, B three points, C two points, D one point, and F no points. The grade points are based on the student's semester averages, and are determined by dividing the total of their grade points by the number of subjects carried.

The standings of the twenty seniors having the highest averages at the end of the first semester of 1945-1946 are as follows:

SENIOR FAREWELL

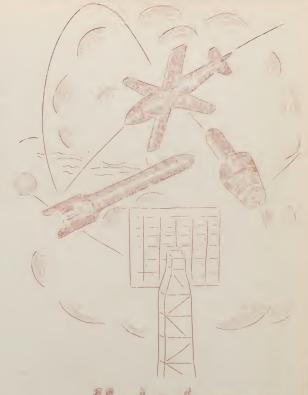

Four years ago, we, the class of '46, opened the door to a new life and a new opportunity—a chance to further our education in the class-rooms of Lowell High.

The original number in our freshman class has been reduced from 121 to almost half of that. Many have contributed their services to the Armed Forces and others have refused to recognize the opportunity for further knowledge.

We have spent four happy years here in the corridors of Lowell Nigh. There have been trials and tribulations, but they are over-stadowed by the delight of meeting new beofie and associating with them.

Now it is our turn to start over as freehmen again—freehmen in the Echoot of Dife. This school does not assemise every summer, nor does it last only four years. This school must be attended every day.

Since victory and peace are ours, we must be able to use them to the best of our additities. We hope that by the time your school life has ended everything will be more completely settled. This is our wish for you and all those yet to come.

JUNIOR PLAY

"You Can't Take It With You"

directed by Geraldine Thompson

On Friday evening, December 7, the junior class presented their annual play under the direction of Miss Geraldine Thompson. This year's production, "You Can't Take It With You," was a three act comedy which invited you to spend a delightful evening just around the corner in the home of Martin Vanderhof. Here is a home where you do as you like and home of martin Vanderhof. Here is a home where you do as you like and no questions asked. In fact, the brood, presided over by Grandpa Vanderhof, goes on about the business of living interestingly.

Ed Carmichael's printing press, grandpa's snake collection, Penny Sycamore's plays, Paul Sycamore's and Mr. De Pinna's fireworks, and all the other absurdatios of the household are kept in check by Alice Sycamore.

Essie Carmichoel's candies and her ballet lessons occupy most of her time. Her ballet teacher, Mr. Kolenkhov, introduces to the family one of his friends in the person of the Grand Duchess Olga Katrina.

Amid all this confusion Alice and Tony Kirby try to lead a normal romance, much to the dismay of Tony's parents.

Further complications are brought about through the entanglement with two members of the F.B.I.

Rheba, the colored maid, and her boy-friend, Donald, are the only two who seem to be affected by the upsetting incidents.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

We entered the doors of Lowell High School, one hundred and twelve shy and uncertain students, but gained confidence with the aid of our sponsors, Miss Tyler, Miss Nolan, Miss Thompson, and Mr. Jones.

We chose Joe Williams as our chief executive, Jim Sharkey for our vice-president, and Jannie Randolph as secretary-treasurer.

From every home room a Sunshine Club member is elected and an alternate is chosen. Those selected from freshman home rooms were Barbara Bowton, Kenneth Childress, Marilyn Hayden, Emily Miller, Tery Miller, Eloise Theis, and Ruth Sinks. Our members to Student Government were: Darrell Cavinder, Zerra Hayden, Dick Norris, and Jim Sharkey in the Sengte, Marilyn Hayden in Student Gourt, and Jannie Randolph on the police lorce. In our class, the girl and boy voted best looking in the "Lowellian" contest were Jean Childress and Jim Purkey. Best athletes were Jo Ann Brownell and Dick Norris, while as most popular we chose Patty Mortin and Terry Miller. Those most likely to succeed were Ann Spannan and Darrell Cavinder, the quiz kids of the freshman class.

Our big event of the year was a party which we held in the gym in March.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

On the first day of school, 115 of our original 122 students returned to L.H.S. to beat the books for another year, with Miss Cook, Mrs. Sisson, and Mr. DuBois as our advisers.

We chose as class officers, Wilbur Hegnauer, president; Barbara Uhter, vice-president; and Virginia Borowski, secretary-treasurer. Our representatives to Student Government were: Virginia Borowski, Shirley Imes, Albert pattee, and Mary Lou Williams. After much debate, green and white were chosen as our class colors.

During September we had a roller skating party which was at least successful in causing a lot of falls. In October a hayride took us around the local countryside. In the middle of November, accompanied Mr. DuBois and a few parents, we spent a very interesting day in Chicago.

Cur "Lowellian" contestants were as follows: Most popular—Wilbur Hegnauer and Phyllis Sutton; Best Josking—JoAnne Taylor and Dick Jackson; Best Athletes—Pat Gross and Tom Sharkey; and Most Likely to Succeed —Virginia Borowski and Dick Longeseker.

The sophomore boys receiving major letters in football were: Bob Coloney, Bud Duncan, Bob Harper, Wilbur Hegnauer, Tom Sharkey, and Bill Tilton. Minor letters went to Orville Beier, Dick Little, Dick Longenecker, and Bill Smith. In basketball, Dick Longenecker, Tom Sharkey, Bob Coloney, and Dick Jackson received minor letters.

Several new members entered our class throughout the year. They were Joyce Leep, Irene Lyren, Marylee Fleming, Dorothy Hardesty, Bob Norcross, and Bernard Thompson. Om January 4, 1946, we mourned the loss of one of our classmates, Francis Parent, who passed away.

We are proud of the scholastic record our class has attained in these two years and we hope to keep up the good work throughout our remaining years in high school.

LOWELLIAN CONTEST

Once again Lowell High elected from its student body the most popular, most glamorous, most ambitious, and most athletic boy and girl, From the glamour department the students chose JoAnne Taylor and Dick Jackson, who both hail from the sophomere class. This was the second year Dick won the contest as the best looking boy of Lowell High

For the most popular girl we have another sophomore, Phyllis Sutton and as the most popular boy we elected Roger Childress from the senior class.

As the girl and boy most likely to succeed, Virginia Borowski was chosen from the sophomore class and Paul Norris from the senior class, The best girl and boy athlete elected from the eight contestants were Gladys Stasaitis, representing the juniors, and Arman Kasparian, the senior nominee.

The sophomores made a good showing by having three girls and one boy elected. Voting was limited to students buying Lowellians. The contestants in the contest were as follows:

SENIOR PLAY

The Senior Class presented "Seventeen" by Booth Tarkington, on Friday, April 12. The story is centered around willie Baxter a seventeen year old boy who connives to get a dress suit so that he can impress a consent to let him have a dress suit, so he wears his father's, unknown to his parents. However, Jane, his young sister, sees willie in it and tells all still wanting a dress suit willie works to earn enough to batter revolts and estisses to let willie buy the suit from the negro, One-Eye Beljux. But finally Mrs. Baxter gives in and lets willie have his father's suit, which is too small for Mr. Baxter anyhow. Miss Pratt with whom Willie has fallen in love, has a farewell party at the Parto college instead of setting married.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student Government, organized last year, operated successfully again this year. It is organized much like our national government with a president, Roger Childress, a vice-president, John Black, a congress, composed of two houses, and a court.

The President and the Vice-president are elected by the student body. The Senate is composed of sixteen members, four elected from each class and the House of Representatives is composed of two members from each club or organization. A bill passed by Congress must be signed by the President and Mr. Brannock before it becomes a low. The Vice-president presides over the Senate and the Speaker of the House, Eileen Callahan, was elected by the House.

The Student Court is composed of a judge, Bill Peterson, a jury, a sheriff, Jack Lacy, and deputies. They are appointed by the President with the consent of the Senate. The court tries and prosecutes all offenders of school rules.

Seniors in the Senate are Bill Peterson, Dick Meyer, Virgil Ewer, and Sally Little. Junior Senators are Joe Villers, Neil Jackson, Ray Becknan and Maryery Little Sophinares are Mirginia Borowski, Shirley Immes Albert Pattee and Mary Low Villiams, Freshman are Darrell Cavinder, Dick Morris, in Sharkey, and Patty Mortin. Sally Little is the Clerk of the Senate

In the House Bob Hockelberg and Barbara Bailey represent the Art Club; Dick Jackson and Barbara Smith the Band, Eugene Peters and Duke Kuiper the Fackson and Barbara Club; Birth Fackson and Barbara Club; Shirlae Cool and Bob Coloney the Latin Club; Jack Schutx and Arman Kesparian the "L" Club; Pat Callahan and Sally Gullstrom the Press Club; Mary Taylor and Paul Norris the Science Club; and Dean Henry and Mary Bryant the Sunshine Club. The Clerk is Ruth Souder.

The jurors are Darrell Cavinder, Marilyn Hayden, Pat Gross, Albert Pattee, Virginia Borowski, Gladys Stasaitis, Neil Jackson, Ray Beckman, Paul Norris, Ruth Souder, and Virgil Ewer. The deputies are Jannie Randolph, Bob Coloney, Barbara Bailwy, Geraldine Childress and Joe Abraham.

G. A. A.

The Girls Athletic Association started the year out with Sally Little, president; Gladys Stasaitis, vice-president; Ruth Souder, corresponding secretary; Eileen Callahan, recording secretary; and Phyllis Ready, treasurer.

The G.A.A. antered the state association and the previous system was abalished. After entering the state association, Miss Russell, the G.A.A. sponsor, took twenty girls to North Judson to compete in a volley ball tournament. Miss Russell said that the girls will continue to compete with other schools in various sports.

The annual athletic dance was held April 26 with Joe Horn's orchestra playing. All of the "L" Club was invited.

The Home Ec Club and the G.A.A. again went together to hold a party for all the mothers of Lowell High's students at "Mothers Tea."

Sally Little left school at mid-term to enter purdue University.

It is an old tradition for the Press Club to present an Honor Blanket to the boy and girl of the senior closs most deserving it. Eligiblity for the blanket is based upon scholostic obility, honor points, and sportsmanship. The condidates are chosen by the members of the Press Club, the senior home rooms, and the foculty.

In order to join the Press Club one must either hove a B averoge or be o member of one of the journalism closses. The members help in putting out the Lowellian by contributing closs histories ondclub write-ups.

LOWELLETTE

The Lowellette is the bi-weekly newspaper of L.H.S. which is published by Miss Nolon's journalism classes and Mr. Ham's vori-typing classes. All the printing is done in the school. Contributions from all classes ore encouraged and this year the stoff placed a red and black Lowetlette box in the office.

The Lowellette started in October 1934, under the title, "L Weekly," with Edwin Yannbada sits first editor. The Lowellette has grown steadily lorger, and in 1944 consisted of eight pages, but due to the paper short oge is now only half that. Its four pages cover oil phases of school events, including news stories, feature officles, cartoons, sports, and the gossip column.

At the beginning of the two weeks period o list of stories suggested by the stoff ond assigned by the editor. As the stories are written and honded in, they ore proof-read and sent to Mr. Ham's room to be typed. Each pope must be compiled with the right number of lines in each column.

The pages are sent to Mr. Ham's vari-typing closs on schedule. On the doy the paper is distributed, the pages ore stapled together, the names written on them, and distributed to the various home rooms. The moiling list includes many servicemen to whom the poper is sent free.

This year's editor was Ruth Souder, and her assistants were Eileen Collahan and Jockie Gross, associate editors; Joanne Albertson, Dick Meyer, and Norma Worley, feature editors; Florence Antsbechler and Dorothy Hoyden, girls' sports editors; Arman Kasparian and Bill Rust, boys' sports; Dean Dixon, business manager; Jane Kimmet, circulation manager; Bonnie Kenney, axchange editor.

SCIENCE CLUE

The Science Club this year decided to become more active. To carry out the new program, Roger Childress was elected president. To assist him was Sally Little, vice-president, and to keep track of the records and money, Jean Roseberry was chosen. Poul Norris and Mary Taylor were elected to watch after the club's interests in Student Government.

Ecrly in the fall an initiation party was held, making a total membership of seventy. During the meetings, reports were given, experiments were conducted, and movies were shown. The subjects were related to some field of science and were of interest to the club.

LATIN CLUB

Promovere bonum in Latinus et facere Latinus plus jucundus was the motto of the Latin Club this year, meaning: to promote interest in Latin and to make Latin more interesting.

In order to do this, Virgil Ewer was elected president and John Love was elected to take over in Virgil's absence, Marqery Little was chosen to count the money and keep track of the minutes. Representatives for Student Government were Bob Coloney and Shirley Cool.

An initiation was held early in the year. Many new members were initiated, making a total membership of seventy, the largest number in years.

The meetings were made interesting by plays, movies, and programs. The plays given were taken from famous myths, but when the actors were chosen on the spur of the moment, they were very humorous. The movies shown related to Latin and Ancient Rome.

The Latin Club feels that they have lived up to their motto and that all the members have enjoyed belonging to the club.

"L" CLIB

The "L" Club was reorganized under the sponsorship of Mr. Milakovic in November of 1944 after a thirteen year lapse. This year's enrollment reached its peak with thirty-two members, twenty-eight of whom were initiated into the club this year. To be a member of the "L" Club, a major letter must be sarned in at least one sport.

The officers were as follows: Jack Schutz, president; Arman Kasparian, viac-president; and Roger Childress, secretary-tracsurer. The representatives to Student Government were Arman Kasparian and Jack Schutz.

The Constitution reads as follows: "The club proposes a deeper interest in and a more wholesome respect for the athletic program. It hopes to create a greater spirit, promote good fellowship, and develop loyalty among the potential athletes, as well as the lettermen of Lowell District High School.

The duties of the "L" Club are: (1) encouragement of respect for solon traditions; (2) to take the lead in sponsoring proper school procedure; (3) to act as monitors of athletic equipment; (4) to protect all school property; (5) to boost athletics; (6) to participate in the extra-curricular activities; (7) to maintain high standards of sportsmanship; (6) to preserve the nonor of the "L" Club; (9) to assist in anything pertaining to athletics.

This year's activities included initiations of new members into the club, many who are underclassmen. A trophy was awarded to the home room which won the most games in the intramural basketball tourney.

HOME EC CLUB

Canning, baking sewing, child care, and home management seem to be the interests of the girls of Lowell High for the Home Economics Club now boasts of 80 members.

The club was organized in 1935 and is now under the leadership of Miss Tyler, with Joan Little appressioner; Phyllis Ready, vice-president; and Geraldine Childress, secretary-treasurer. Ruth Souder and Gladys Stasaitis represent the club in the House of Representatives.

The Christmas season brought out the spirit of giving, for the Home Ec Club made many stuffed toys which were distributed throughout the Children's ward in the Methodist and Mercy hospitals in Gary.

In March the club served a dinner for the F.F.A. boys and their fathers at their annual banquet. The theme of the banquet was centered around St. Patrick's Day.

In May the Mother's Tea, which is co-sponsored by the members of the Home Ec Club and the G.A.A., was held for mothers of all Lowell High School students.

SUNSHINE CLUB

The purpose of the Sunshine Club is to buy flowers for the sick, to send greelings of cheer, and to bring sunshine anywhere it is needed, in any—way possible.

This year Barbara Schneider was elected "Chief Sun-Beam", with Dick Jackson to take over in her absence, and Joyce Doolittle to keep track of the meetings and the money. Mary Bryant and Dean Henry were the two members elected to the House of Representatives.

In order to raise money, the club members sold Christmas and birthday cards. Also, the Sunshine Club took its turn selling milk in the catetoria. Later in the year, Sunshine notes were sold; these were cards on which one can write messages suitable for any occasion.

F.F.A.

This year the f.f.A. elected Riley Robertson, President; Joe Abraham, Vice-president; and Homer Allie, secretary. Ernest Tyler, as treasurer, kept track of the club's money.

The club's reporter was Sheldon Miller and Dick Frahm served as watch-dog, Waymond Kuiper and Eugene Peters represented the F.F.A. in the StudentsGovernment.

The F.F.A. had a very busy year. Some of their activities include a rip; to the International livestock show and a tour of Swift and Co.; a turkey raffle; the sponsorship of the Lake County corn show; a pest killing contest; sale of garden seeds; held a local essay and oratorical contest of which Riley Robertson and Paul Phillips were the winners, respectively.

A father and son banquet was held early in March which was served by the Home Economics Club.

ART CLUB

The Art Club started the school year of 1946 by electing Dick Meyer president, Reba Creekmur vice-president and Joanne Albertson secretary-treasurer.

The Student Government gained two more members when the club electe Barbara Bailey and Bob Hoeckelberg as representatives.

During the first semester part of the club visited the Chicago Art Institute where they were shown exhibits of modern American paintings.

In the latter part of the second semester, Art Club pins were ordered. The pins, which could be obtained in either gold or sterling silver were miniature replicas of palettes and brushes with ART CLUB inscribed on them.

The Lake County Federation of Clubs sponsored an art contest in which several art class members participated.

The band members met two weeks before Labor Day as usual, to rehearse for that event. The members-elect from the eight grade marched with the band. The events at the home football games water retarded somewhat by inclement weather. However, the band did put on some fine performances.

the Christmas Concert was planned for December 19th and was well tended by an appreciative audience. As an added feature, unusual to formation the concern the con

February 6th was a busy day for the music department. At the hour of 2 p.m. L.H.S. went on the air again ever W J O B, Hammond. This program was written up to feature more music than former broadcasts. Then at 8 p.m. the Gory Carrilco Concert Band came to present one of the finest music department sponsored this concert, which was given without any expense to the audience or the sponsors.

After the band settled down to some concentrated rehearsing the Spring Concert was set for May 1. Ensembles began rehearsing, as did solos in preparation for this spring event. More time was given by each interested pupil by practicing during library periods.

The officers of the band presented a bill to the Student Government so that the band be given permission to purchase black sweaters and have a definite music lyre emblem for them. It was passed and the Band Boosters consented to present each qualified member of the band with one of these emblems beginning with the fall term of '46. The personnel of the band sold milk at noon for six weeks to cover the cost of the first order of emblems.

This year saven pupils organized a swing band to play for events in school and out of school. Outside rehearsing was all that this group was able to reconize. Since the band is going now it is hopes that it will continue to rehearse and make itself available for school events.

CHORAL GROUPS

At the beginning of school the different groups were organized and members were tried for voice-placement. Then serious rehearsing began. The groups consisted of the freshman girls' glee club, the mixed chorus of the groups consisted of the freshman girls' glee club, the mixed chorus for town events, and once traveled to Cary to sing for the District American Legion Auxiliary meeting. The Christmas concert was made more enjoyable by the choral groups fine participation.

The groups all took part in the broadcast in February and the results were well received. The freshman girls' numbers were well performed as was the mixed chorus' "Winter Song". The second semester made quite a change in the personnel of the chorus since most of the boys had conflicting classes. A Girle' chorus was then organized to sing at the Spring mixed chorus.

Lowell 12--Griffith 19

The Red Devils lost the first game of the season on their home grid by the score of 19-17. The inexperienced Devils were behind 7-0 at the end of the first life of the first end of the first touchdown, the first touchdown, then Griffith intercepted two passes for touchdowns, and in return Bill Rust intercepted a pass for the Devils' second score, which found the Devils behind, 19-12, when the whistle blew. They say that experience is your best teacher—the Devils found that out.

Lowell 12-- Crown Point O

For the first time in three and one-half years, the Lowell Red Devils defeated the Ctown Point Bulladgs 21 to 0 on C.P.'s home grid. The Devils hit first and hard to make the Bulladgs fumble on their first play. Kasparian scored in the first quarter on a 21 yard sweep around end and then threw a pass to Villers on the 5 yard line for the second score. The rest of the game found Kasper and Sharkey hummering out good yardage, but unable to score because of Lowell penalties.

Lowell O--Hobart O

Suspense was the keynote when the Devils journeyed to Hobart tohold the Brickies scoroless. The ball was alternated from one side to the other in a terrific battle.

Three times during the ball game, Hobart marched to within 10 yards of the Devils goal but only to be nailed. As a result, the game ended in a scoreless tie.

Lowell 13--Rensselaer 13

The highlights of this game came when Kasparian scored two touchdowns with six and one-half minutes remaining in the game. The undefected Bombers were held scoreless throughout the first half, but during the third quarter the Bombers broke the deadlock by scoring on a 75 yard run and a pass. With six and one-half minutes playing time remaining in the game, the Devils seemingly found themselves faced with another defect. The Devils' line cracked the Bombers' backfield, which fumbled, and Kasparian plowed through center for the first score. After the kG-01, the Devils' conditions the score of the first score. Lowell 21--Crown Point O

The Red Devils won their third game of the season in a race to beat last year's record, when they handed the Bulldogs their second defect this season before a record crowd of 1700.

The Bulldogs came back for revenge with added stubborn resistence, forcing Lowell to punt several times in a row. But with a few minutes remaining in the first quarter, the Bulldogs were unable to halt the Devils any longer. Beckman plowed through center for the first Lowell score. The Devils were again on the spurt, with Kasperian completing two touchdown passes to Zom Shartey, right half, and Bill Rust, Lowell's glant end, leaving the score 19 to 0 at the half.

The second half brought few results, but Lowell added 2 points when a C.P. back was tackled behind his goal for a safety, and the game ended with a final score of 24 to O.

Lowell 52 -- Crete C

Crete was the fourth victim of the Lowell Red Devils. The Cretans could not cope with the cut-backs of Kasper and Sharkey, nor the plunging of Beckman. On the first play, Sharkey cliped-of 6d yards for the Devils' first touchdown. Soon after that, the Devils' backs were able to score whenever they thought it was necessary. Kasparian scored 2 points, and Sharkey was second with 12.

Lowell 13--St. Joseph 7

Even the strong team from St. Joseph, Rensselaer, was unable to stop the Devils who won their fifth game of the season on their own muddy field. The game had been postponed twice because of rain.

The Devils started off with a drive which ended on the Puma Cubs' 1 yard line and committee of the Keedoutt of the 35 yard line and again the Devils drove the term of the Starten of the

With a few minutes remaining in the game, St. Joseph let loose a passing attack which resulted in a touchdown within 45 seconds of the end of the game. The Devils' backs poured over 250 yards from scrimmage and held St. Joe to 109 yards.

Lowell 26--Catholic Central 6

The Lowell Red Devils won their last game of the season to make it six wins, two ties, and one loss, which was the best season since the undefeated team of 1937.

Winning the toss, the Warriors chose to kick, and the Devils marched down to C.C.'s 14 yard line where Beckman went over on an off-tackle smash and the extra point was added. Before the first quarter was over, Beckman again fought his way through the line for his second touchdown.

In the second quarter the Warriors were unable to pass the SO yard marker, while the Devils were still on the go. Kasparian sweet around right end for the Devils' third touchdown. Joe Villers also sweet to build a touchdown on a blocked punt for the score of 26-O at half-time. Lowell did not score in the second half, but the Warriors scored in the third quarter—the rest of the game was a battle in midfield.

1945-46 Sports Year

1945-46 marked another successful year on the griditon in the history of Lowell High School's athletic teams. This season the Red Devils lost only one game and at the close of the season had wor six, tied two and lost one, which was the best season since the undefeated teams of 1956 and 1937.

With a strong line, averaging 180 pounds, only one team was able to penetrate the Devils' defense to beat them by one touch down.

The "L" Club of this year selected Jack Schutz, Captain and Ray Beckman as the most valuable player.

This year's squad loses Bill Rust, Arman Kasparian, Charles Hatch, Jack Schutz, Bill Peterson, and Dick Meyer by graduation. But this will still leave a strong reserve, with several sophomores and juniors to replace them.

This year's basketball season marked the most successful season ever had by the Red Devils of Lowell. Although two games were cancelled, Lowell won ten out of the remaining sixteen of the scheduled games. Lowell made history by going to the finals in three tourneys, including the Hammond sectionals which was the first time in the history of the school. Bill Rust and Arman Kasparlan were co-captains of this year's school.

This year's intramural trophy was won by "Baughman's Bone Busters" with eight wins and two losses. "Milakovic's Undertakers" were scond with seven wins and four losses, and had previously beaten the Bone Busters 7 to 2. In third place came the frashies from wiss bolan's room, who had six wins and four losses. The trophy will be awarded on Honor

Late in the spring the newly organized track team under Coach Du-Bois met seven opponents, Hebron, Edison, Valpo, Griffith, Crown Point, Edison, and Crown Point. These meets were scheduled at a date too late for publication of results in this annual.

BASKETBALL.

Lowell 23 -- Demotte 17

The Lowell Red Devils trimmed the Demotte Indians in a close game which was scheduled one week after our last football game. Weaver led the scoring with 10 points and P. Norris was second with 5 points.

Due to the slick composition floor, it was difficult for the Devils to adapt themselves, giving Demotte a 40 to 8 lead at the end of the first half. In the second half the Devils broke into the scoring column to lead the Indians 18 to 13 at the end of third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, Weaver fouled out and Snyder was close behind with four. The Devils were still in the lead at the end of the fourth quarter, 23 to 47.

Lowell 40--Crete 20

The Devils walked away with their second game of the season by swamping the Crete Marriors on our home floor. The Indians offered stiff resistence in the first quarter, but were soon overwhelmed by the fast-moving Devils. Bill Rust led the scoring with 10 points and paul Norris was close behind with 9.

Lowell 34 -- Hebron 13

The Lowell Red Devils ran away with their third straight win from the Hebron Hawks. The high-lights of the game occurred when the Norris brothers scored 21 points out of the total of 34, with Paul Norris scoring 14 points and his freshman brother scoring 7.

It looked as if it were going to be a close game when Hebron scored the first couple of points, but the Devils soon came back with a 14 to 6 lead.

In the second half the Devils held the Hawk's to 7 points, and in turn Lowell scored 20 points for themselves.

Lowell 35 -- Hobart 57

Lowell lost their first game of the season to a hot Hobart team. Playing in Hobart's cracker-box gym, the Devils were trailing 13 to 8 at the end of the first quarter.

In the second quarter, the Devils led by one point but were unable to keep the lead, when the Brickies got in a hot scoring streak again to lead $27\,$ to $21\,$ at the half.

In the second half the Brickies were unable to miss the bucket, running the score up to 57 while the Devils totaled 35 points.

Lowell 31--Kouts 28

Winning their fourth game of the season in an exciting bout the Devils rallied in the last quarter to beat the Mustangs after trailing for the first three quarters. Rust, Weaver, and Villers scored 7 points each, and Kasparian was second with 6.

In the first half the Mustangs broke away for a ten point lead and in the third quarter the Devils were trailing $22\ to 40$. But, newertheless, they started a rally which brought them within five points of Kouts by the end of the third quarter.

The fourth quarter found the Mustangs stalling to hold their lead, while the Devils rallied to score 40 points, holding Kouts to 2 points.

Lowell 38 -- Crown Point 31

Our fifth win of the season came from our arch enemy, the Crown Point Bulldogs.

Lowell was in the lead throughout the game. However, the Bulldogs came up suprisingly in the third quarter within 1 point of the Devils, but were unable to hold on. Bill Rust, high point man, made 47 points, and Paul Norris was second with 9. Throughout the game 53 fouls were called.

Lowell 47--Morocco 21

The Lowell quintet went on to win their sixth game of the season over a stubborn Morocco five.

After seesawing back and forth a couple of times, the Devils cinched the game in the fourth quarter, with Paul Norris scoring 12 points and Weaver second with 8.

Lowell Goes to Finals in Holiday Tourney

East Gary Edison was Lowell's first victim by a score of 39 to 38. The Devils then surged on to set back the Pirates of Merrillville (the expected winners of the tourney), by a score of 38 to 34.

After knocking out Crown Point 45 to 40, Griffith picked Lowell as its next victim in a close game, 45 to 19. With only two minutes remaining, the Devils led by 150 method where unable to hold the lead. However, our team received a pasketball and Bill hust and Paul Norris received small gold basketballs for their outstanding playing during the tourney.

Lowell 26--Edison 30

Losing their second game of the season, the Devils played against a team with nine straight victories. Although the Devils were leading at the half, they were unable to keep it after the Blue Blazers got into a scoring streak to win the game, by a score of 39 to 26.

The East Gary game was canceled because of Coach DuBois' illness.

Lowell 50--Griffith 40

Probably playing their best game of the season, the Devils beat the Holiday Tourney winners by one point in an exciting game. Kasper made up for his two weeks' illness by scoring 19 points and Weaver was second with 16.

Lowell took off for a 9 point lead at the quarter, but failed to hold it when Griffith scored 34 points to Lowell's 10 for a lead of 27 to 19 at the half.

In the third quarter, Griffith was fighting to hold their lead and did hold a ten point lead at the end of the third quarter, but the Devils were still fighting back with Kasper and Weaver scoring to keep the Devils in range of the Panthers. After a hard quarter, Lowell won the game by scoring 19 points to Griffith's 8 points in the fourth quarter.

Lowell 35 -- Merrillville 47

The Devils dropped considerably after the hot game with Griffith and lost their third game when the Pirates cashed in another victory. This was the first off-night for the Devils until the end of the season. The Pirates held a consistent lead over us throughout the game.

Lowell 43 -- Wheeler 23

Recovering from the defeat dealt by Merrillville, the Devils kayoed the Bob-Cats of Wheeler with a team consisting mainly of the second string whe ran up the sceller with a team consisting mainly of the second string field goals and one free throw for lippints and freshman, Dick Norrisz was second with three field goals and three tree throws for a total of younts.

Lowell 39 -- Dyer 25

The Sizzling Satams of Lowell cinched the ninth game of the season over the Indiana of Dyer, with Weaver leading the scoring with 14 points as the varsity players sat on the bench resting for the clash with fifth the next night.

The first half was all suspense with both sides about equal, but during the second half the Indiane of byer could no longer keep up with the fast-maving Devils, who scored 14 points to byer's 8 in the laft.

Lowell 48 -- Griffith 45

Playing on their own floor for the first time in eight games, the Devils gave the Panthers the old pitch fork, for the second time proving that they could have beaten them in the Holiday Tourney finals for the trophy.

Playing before approximately 500 spectators who roared at the top of their lungs, the Devils were spurred on to victory. Bill Rust hit 15 points and McMey of Griffith scored 16 points.

Lowell 44 -- Wirt 45

The Devils played Gary Wirt in an exciting over-time game, with the score tied three times throughout the game. The over-time was three minutes and Wirt won on a free-through Snyder led the attack with ${\tt 11}$ points, while Stack of Wirt led with ${\tt 16}$ points.

Lowell 31--Crown Point 41

The Devils lest fite game of the season to the Bulldogs. With only a few points difference, the teams seemed pepped up, and with only a few minutes remaining, Crown Point shot basket after basket to raise the score of 41 to 34.

Joe Villers led the Devils with 8 points, while Waymire, a freshie of Crown Point, scored 14 points.

Lowell 39--Merrilluille 58

Bad luck seemed to have trailed the Devils because we lost another game to the Merrillville Pirates who used fast breaks to outscore us throughout the game. Kasparian and Bill Rust led with scoring, with 9 and 8 points respectively.

The Lowell-Portage game was canceled because of bad weather.

Devils Make History in Hammond Sectionals

The Devils started off with an easy victory over the Bearcats of Wheeler by a score of 67-41, while Griffith lost a hard-played game to Catholic Central by one point. Hammond Catholic Central was the Devils next victim. It was anybody's ball game in the first half, but was fatal for the Warriors in the second half with the final score of 47-37.

It was predicted that Lowell would get beaten by Portage's second team and water boy included, but even the first team couldn't withstand the pressure of the Devils in the third quarter. The game ended in a 52 to 45 victory for the Devils.

But in the final game, Lowell bowed to East Chicago Washington, who ran the score up with a lot of fresh substitutes, while Bill Rust, Lowell's six_feet_esix_inch center and high scoring man throughout the season, sat on the bench with a sprained ankle. The final score was 57 to 23.
